

2019 Ohio Middle Level Association Graduate Credit Assignment

Earn 1 graduate credit through Kent State University for $150

Steps to receive graduate credit:

- 1) Register for the course either online at <https://tinyurl.com/OMLAGraduatecredit> or at the KSU Exhibitor Table on Thursday or Friday of the conference. All registrations must be received by Friday, November 8 at 4:00 p.m.
- 2) Select six OMLA Conference sessions from the ten available (8 breakout sessions and 2 keynote sessions). Complete the “Analyze, Reflect, Apply and Inquire” assignment for each of six chosen. (See template on reverse side.)
- 3) Select one of the six sessions from the above assignment, and apply the middle level theoretical concept, research finding, or theory to an existing lesson plan. Submit the revised lesson plan that demonstrates the theory in classroom practice.
- 4) All assignments must be emailed to Tiffany Shaw at tshaw15@kent.edu by Wednesday, November 27, 2019, at 5:00 p.m. Early submission is highly encouraged.

For questions, please email the Office of Professional Development and Outreach at pd@kent.edu or 330-672-0537

Kent State University
Fall 2019

Ohio Middle Level Association Conference

Analyze, Reflect, Relate, Inquire

Name: _____ Date: _____

Title of Session Attended _____

1. Identify at least one middle level theoretical concept, research finding, or theory that formed the foundation for this session. Using APA rules, cite the resource(s), and provide a summary of what you learned from this session.
2. Why do you believe this concept, research finding, theory or idea is important to middle level student achievement and/or outcomes?
3. Apply what you have learned to some aspect of your life, personally or professionally.
4. What question(s) has been raised for you? What are you still wondering about?

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Education,
Health and Human Services